

Recommendation Letter

To Whom It May Concern,

It is my pleasure to provide this recommendation for Sly Production, represented by Vadym Viazovskyi, located at Elsenstr 50, 12059 Berlin.

We had the opportunity to work with Sly Production on the design and construction of our exhibition stands for trade fairs in Madrid and Stockholm. The experience was exceptional in every aspect.

The team demonstrated a unique and creative approach, delivering outstanding, one-of-a-kind designs that perfectly represented our brand.

Their work was always completed on time, even within tight deadlines, while maintaining the highest standards of quality.

The Sly Production team is highly professional, supportive, and solution-oriented, always ready to adapt and assist with any challenges during the preparation and on-site execution.

They used only high-quality materials, ensuring both durability and an impressive visual result.

We are fully satisfied with their services and can confidently recommend Sly Production as a reliable and talented partner for exhibition stand design and construction.

Sincerely,
